

ALUMNI HALL.

A GRAND MEMORIAL OF THE UNIVERSITY CENTENNIAL.

At the Alumni Banquet during the recent celebration of the University Centennial it was resolved by the Alumni present to erect on the Campus a splendid building of handsome and imposing architecture to mark the ending of the first century of the University's life, and to stand as a perpetual memorial of the gratitude and affection of her sons.

This building will not only serve as a stately memorial, but will also supply a genuine and pressing need of the University. The basement and first floor of the building will be occupied by the lecture-rooms, laboratories and store-rooms of the Departments of Physics and Electrical Engineering, and also by the University Administrative Offices, to-wit, the President's, Registrar's, and Bursar's.

The second and third floors will be equipped for recitation and lecture-rooms for all the Departments of the University; and will be constructed, arranged and furnished after the very best models, thus concentrating in one building all the teaching of the University, and devoting the other buildings exclusively to dormitory purposes. The plan of mixing in the same building rooms for instruction and for student occupancy has been abandoned by all progressive institutions as being inconvenient and disagreeable to both teachers and students.

The construction of Alumni Hall will practically add a new dormitory building to the University equipment; for, by withdrawing the lecture and recitation rooms from the present buildings, enough space will be gained to furnish dormitories for eighty additional students. This increase of dormitory accommodations is greatly needed; for already nearly one hundred students are forced to find rooms in the village.

In the construction of Alumni Hall the rooms on the second and third floors will be arranged with the purpose of converting them at each commencement into sleeping-rooms, sitting-rooms and reception-rooms for the Alumni, thus making Alumni Hall an Alumni Home. On the walls of the public reception-room will be inscribed on tablets of bronze the names of all the donors to the fund for the erection of the Hall.

These subscriptions were made on the basis of promises by the Alumni present at the Banquet. It is hoped and expected that further contributions by correspondence and otherwise will secure from each class a subscription of at least $1,000—insuring a total sum of not less than $50,000.

The undersigned were appointed by the Alumni Association a committee to raise the money and erect the building. It is their purpose, as soon as $30,000 is subscribed, to secure from leading architects in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago designs for the Hall, offering at least $500 for the best plan submitted. The granite quarries of Mt. Airy and the brown and gray sandstone quarries near the University will furnish handsome and cheap building materials.

As soon as enough subscriptions are made to justify the committee in awarding the contract for the erection of the building, they will call for payment of the first installment of each subscription. This will probably occur in about six months from this date. All subscriptions will be paid to the Hon. R. H. Battle, Treasurer of the University, Raleigh, North Carolina. Full details of the plan of payment are contained in the enclosed note. Subscribers may pay the full amount at once, if they so desire, to Mr. Battle.

Alumni of the University and friends of higher education everywhere are cordially and earnestly invited to coöperate in this movement for the expansion of the University.
